TAKE Solutions and LIBA Centre of Excellence in Logistics and Supply Chain Management is organizing a Thought Leadership session on “Challenges of Senior Management - Experiences as a CEO towards pursuit of manufacturing excellence” at 1630 hrs on 28th January 2012, Saturday.

Trade and industry and societal progress are often determined by the human quest for improvement and pursuit of excellence. To bring about this distinction there needs to be a transformation in the choice of next practices rather than best practices. The experience and expertise of the senior management is of immense value in this pursuit towards excellence. The manufacturing sector is now in the limelight despite the slowing down economy and it is imperative at this point to integrate senior managerial excellence and manufacturing excellence to gain brand new competitive advantage. In this context we present the Thought Leadership session on “Challenges of Senior Management - Experiences as a CEO towards pursuit of manufacturing excellence”. Mr.R.Kumar would be the Chief Guest and the speaker.
