About LIBA

Loyola Institute of Business Administration (LIBA), established in 1979, is one of India’s premier management institutes. Consistently ranked among the best business schools in the country, LIBA represents the unflagging zeal for education that is a unique characteristic of the Jesuit Society. LIBA is a Jesuit institute under the aegis of Loyola College Society, Chennai. The institute lays stress on holistic learning with particular emphasis on excellence and ethics. It is proud of its culture rooted in values such as mutual respect, integrity, teamwork and social concern. LIBA endeavours to contribute to the sustained development and inclusive growth of the nation and the world at large, by preparing managers imbued with a spirit of innovation and entrepreneurship. Through its various international collaborations LIBA ensures diversity on campus with students from Belgium, France, Germany, and Italy among other countries, attending complete trimesters at LIBA. Similarly, LIBA students go on student exchange programmes to other countries within Europe and North America. In addition, LIBA students pursue international internships fostering a global mindset and cross cultural sensitivity.

About Centre for Ethics and Corporate Governance

LIBA’s mission is to pursue Ethics and Excellence. In line with this ideal, LIBA established the Centre for Business Ethics and Corporate Governance to propagate business ethics and internationally accepted corporate governance practices for the benefit of students, who are the future of the business world. Objectives of the Centre are to raise awareness on ethical issues, inspire socially responsible leadership, enrich ethical knowledge and societal obligations and to promote principle based corporate governance. The Centre has been engaged in a whole lot of activities that aim at propagating business ethics and good corporate governance. While continuing with our yearly events like Beacon, the Business Ethics conference and Mother Teresa Award for Corporate Citizenship, we also started a few new initiatives like the NGO Advisory Panel in collaboration with CSO partners and an Ethics Blog in partnership with the Marakkula Centre for Applied Ethics, Santa Clara University.

About Mother Teresa Award for Corporate Citizen

The Mother Teresa Award for Corporate Citizens, instituted in 1998, is presented every year to a company that has shown exemplary commitment to the ideals of corporate citizenship. The award has acquired an all India reputation and is well known in corporate circles. The objective of the award is to recognize an organisation that has gone beyond its call of duty to patronize socially responsible initiatives for the upliftment of the downtrodden and the marginalised sections of the society, to promote welfare activities for the benefit of the poor or has been cognizant of environment and has incorporated sustainable management practices in its operations.
