

5) Diploma in Information Technology Enterprise

Entrepreneurship is a vital part of any economy; it generates employment opportunities and consequently contributes to the economic development of the country. As part of a larger initiative to build the entrepreneurial skills needed for such a task, the Centre for Entrepreneurial Development at Loyola Institute of Business Administration (LIBA), offers through LIBA Informatics; its IT wing, a Diploma in Information Technology Enterprise (DITE).

Course Objectives

- To enable enterprising Plus Two pass-outs, diploma holders, graduates, build self-confidence, develop necessary skills, incubate ideas, develop business proposals, intern with corporate, access funding opportunities and start their own enterprise in IT or with the support of IT.
- To educate entrepreneurs on computers and customise information technology to increase the efficiency of their businesses. Additionally, to look for new opportunities to venture into IT enabled/IT services.

Course Content

- Office Automation
- Graphic Design
- Web Design
- Web Programming
- Soft Skills & Career Planning
- Entrepreneurship Development

Eligibility

The candidate should have completed his/her plus two in any stream, can be a graduate or an entrepreneur with prior computer knowledge

Course Duration

250 hours

Contact

LIBA - Informatics Centre,
Loyola College, Chennai 600 034,
Tel: 044-28177180/181,
Email: ic@liba.edu, libaic@gmail.com