

2) Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Applications (P.G.D.C.A)

A Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Application has been one of the most popular courses in the field of Computer Applications since its inception, among students from other disciplines. Its course structure covers the essential elements of computer programming and its applications. It is useful for any graduate who wishes to enhance the use of computers in his/her discipline. This course has also been preferred by graduates willing to start their careers in the field of computer at the 'Programmer Level'. The program includes advanced concepts of programming, computational technique, file structures, and database among other modules.

Course Objectives

To produce trained computer professionals with hands on experience, able to handle software challenges in industry/academia. PGDCA provides students with knowledge and skills required to operate in the IT industry.

Course Content

- OOPS, C++ and Visual C++
- Oracle with Developer 2000 (Oracle Forms, Oracle Reports, Oracle Graphics, Oracle Queries)
- Visual Basic and Java
- Software Engineering
- Career Planning
- Application oriented project work

Eligibility

Graduates/ candidates having completed plus two in any stream. Candidates must be proficient in "C" Language.

Course Duration

225 hours

Contact

LIBA - Informatics Centre,
Loyola College, Chennai 600 034,
Tel: 044-28177180/181,
Email: ic@liba.edu, libaic@gmail.com